DRESS UP DAYS – TERM 2 - 2011-12 – LOWER PRIMARY

Please remember, costumes are completely optional. There is no doubt dressing up unlocks a child's imagination a little more and helps them appreciate the characters they are playing but no-one should feel uncomfortable. And, please, do not go to any expense. Most bits and pieces can be found at home.

WK NO.	W/C	PLAY/ IMPRO USING PROPS/MIME TO MUSIC	SUGGESTED DRESS-UP
1	9/1/12		Nothing required
2	16/1/12	Sack Race	School sports day. Children may bring a sack (or a pillow case) which they can fit inside and jump!
3	23/1/12		Nothing required
4	30/1/12	Creative Impro with props Birthday Picnic	Rugs, picnic baskets, play food etc. Let's have a picnic!
5	6/2/12		Nothing required
		HALF TERM
6	20/2/12	Creative Impro with props Family Holiday	Students will improvise a play about a holiday. Suitcases, clothing, carry-bags, back-packs, tickets, cameras, hats etc. would all enhance the characters.
7	27/1/12		Nothing required
8	5/3/12		Nothing required
9	12/3/12	Creative Impro with props Shoe Sale	Set in a busy shoe shop at sale time. Each child should bring a pair of shoes extra to the ones they are wearing.
10	19/3/12	Parent's day presentation	We will revisit a play already done. You will be advised of any requirements closer to the time.
11	26/3/12	Parent's day presentation	We will revisit a play already done. You will be advised of any requirements closer to the time.
